

El Salvador Trip

June 15 - 24, 2012

Specially created for educators and parish leadership

A rare opportunity to touch and be touched by the lives, struggles, joys, and faith of those who have suffered because of their Catholic faith - the people of El Salvador.

APPROVED FOR 45 CLOCK HOURS !

- Share experiences with Salvadoran families
- Visit Archbishop Romero's tomb
- Visit the site of the assassination of six Jesuit priests in 1989

- Visit with Fair Trade Coffee Cooperative workers
- Visit projects enhancing the dignity of Salvadorans

"What I was unprepared for was the overall impact El Salvador would have. After 10 days, I returned to the United States and completely redesigned a course to give my students a better sense of the meaning of solidarity."

Dianne, Academy of Holy Angels

Hurry, space is limited!

Interested? Contact:

Mike Haas

Center for Mission

651.291.4504

haaslm@archspm.org

By January 6, 2012

"After I met the Salvadoran people and realized how connected we truly were, I saw more and more the value of relationships. I realize our life is bigger than our things and has to be more about people. My life has a whole new meaning now."

Cathy, St. Vincent de Paul

Ask about qualifying for trip scholarships

