Peter's Pence Collection – June 26

Peter's Pence, June 26, 2022, is a parish collection for the Holy Father. Contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection help the Holy Father in two ways: financing the many activities of service carried out by the Curia like formation of the clergy, communication, promotion of integral human development, education, justice and in the numerous works of material assistance for the most needy like victims of war, oppression and natural disasters. In these difficult times, let us entrust ourselves in solidarity to the Holy Father and support him in his mission.
